FLORA HILL, VICTORIA

LEWIS FREEMAN-HARRISON PROMISES TO REPRESENT THE ENTIRE REGION

Eppalock Ward candidate, Lewis Freeman-Harrison, pledges to represent his entire ward and ensure no community is left behind, if elected to council next month in October.

“I have always been passionate about our country. I love country Victoria and I love small town communities. Community is everything and if we invest in working on our regional communities, the people in them will live healthier. Better representation equates to better mental health.”

Mr. Freeman-Harrison visited Heathcote this week to have a conversation with local business owners about the practical needs of their town.

“Our small towns need to be listened to. I will ensure small towns, such as Heathcote, are fully represented on council. More street lighting in Heathcote is needed, as well as local footpaths.”

Mr. Freeman-Harrison stated that he intends to visit other small towns in his ward over the coming weeks to ascertain their needs and how he can represent them if elected to council.

“I will be visiting other small towns next week and the week after. I want to ensure that communities such as Argyle, Axe Creek, Costerfield, Derrinal, Emu Creek, Junortoun, Kimbolton, Knowsley, Ladys Pass, Longlea, Lyal, Mia Mia, Mount Camel, Myrtle Creek, Redcastle, Redesdale and Tooleen are fully supported if I am elected next month in October.
